MIDHAT QUADRI, CFA

Vice President and Portfolio Manager

1553 Avenida de Mesilla
Las Cruces, NM, 88005
mquadri@firstamb.com
575-525-4235

Midhat earned his MBA at New Mexico State University, in Las Cruces, NM in 2005. He then began his career at Merrill Lynch as a Financial Advisor.

Midhat is Vice President and Portfolio Manager at First American Bank. He assists in managing more than $500 million in assets by working closely with high-net worth clients across New Mexico. He specializes in portfolio construction and relative value methodologies that seek to reduce volatility and enhance risk adjusted returns.

With more than nine years of experience in Investment Management, Midhat applies his expertise to assist his clients achieve their desired retirement lifestyle in line with their objectives and constraints.

Midhat holds the Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA) designation which provides a strong foundation of advanced investment analysis and portfolio management skills, making it the most respected and recognized investment designation in the world.

Feel free to contact Midhat via email at mquadri@firstamb.com or call 575-525-4235.