

COMMERCIAL Online Statement Enrollment

I understand the Company will no longer receive monthly bank statements via mail. First American Bank will document and archive all statements to ensure future availability whether produced electronically or in print. You will be promptly notified by email each time your statement(s) is available. In order to receive email notification that your statement is available, you must maintain a current email address.

If you have a "multiple-party account" as defined in the Terms and Conditions of your account agreement, your email address may be changed by any authorized party to your account. First American Bank shall have no obligation or liability to any of the parties to a "multiple-party account" if the email address is changed.

You must promptly review your online statement and any accompanying items and notify us in writing of any unauthorized signatures, alterations, forgeries, or any other errors in your account within 60 days of when we first send or make the online statement available, regardless of when you receive and/or open the online statement. This 60-day limitation is without regard to whether we used ordinary care. Any applicable time periods within which you must notify us of any errors on your account statement(s) shall begin on the date your online statement was sent.

To use this service you will need a computer with Internet access and an Internet browser that supports 128-bit encryption (Microsoft Internet Explorer 6 or higher and AOL 5.0 or higher). To view your online statements you will need Adobe Acrobat Reader. We have provided a link on our webpage on the "Online Statements" tab to which will allow you to download the Adobe Acrobat Reader.

First American Bank is not responsible for any electronic virus or viruses that you may encounter. First American Bank suggests that you routinely scan your PC(s) using a virus protection product.

If you choose to cancel your enrollment in online statements, simply contact your local First American Bank branch or call Customer Care at 800-289-6140.
